

Rules for using the Library

1. The reading room can be used by students, doctoral students and employees of the Jagiellonian University.
2. Following the sanitary regulations in force, all Readers are obliged to cover their mouth and nose with a mask in all spaces Library, observe the rules of social distancing, and using hand sanitizers before entering the library.
3. Coats should be left in the cloakroom!
4. It is recommended using the device for self-borrowing books, located on the premises of the library. In case of any problems, please contact the librarian.
5. Returns can be made: using the self-return device located in in the corridor behind the entrance to the Library (recommended) or in person in Lending Room during the Library's working hours.
6. We provide computer stations with Internet access, you can use your own equipment.
7. When taking part in on-line lectures, you should use your own headphones.

8. The key to individual work booths are at the librarian's.

Please follow the instructions of the employees of the Library.

The library is systematically disinfected.

Detailed information can be obtained by phone: 12 644 4815 or by e-mail: Biblioteka.wfais@uj.edu.pl

The organization and working hours of the Library may change during the year academic.